About School of Law

Legal education plays a vital role in nation-building as it facilitates the settlement of disputes by the procedure established by law in a peaceful manner. Rule of Law is the basic feature of the Constitution of India, and quality legal education is the sine qua non to facilitate it. Therefore, the youth need to receive legal education to make them understand the relevance and significance of democratic values. Galgotias University initiated the School of Law (recognized by the Bar Council of India) as a part of this mission of providing quality legal education. The School offers 5 year integrated B.A.LL.B and B.B.A.LL.B. and three year LL.B. program alongwith LL.M. in Criminal Law, Corporate Law and International Law to more than 1000 students. The school has 60 plus research scholars pursuing their doctorate degree. The School is focused on producing socially conscious lawyers, litigation specialists, corporate lawyers, mediation & arbitration experts, professionals to draft legal instruments, policymakers, researchers, academicians, diplomats, judicial officers, civil servant, to meet the diverse requirements of legal human resource. Galgotias School of Law offers world-class infrastructure, including a Library that's well-stocked with thousands of Books, Academic and Reporting Journals and other reference materials. It also has access to numerous online Legal databases. Wi-Fi enabled campus allows the students to access the online legal database and stay updated. Classrooms are well equipped with LCD projectors and other IT tools for education. A spacious auditorium serves the need for various seminars, conferences and other events. The School also has a Moot Court Hall to help students get practical courtroom lessons.

About the Conference

Legal professionals play a pivotal role in society and justice administration system. The skill set required to become a legal professional can not be solely developed by classroom learning. Learning by doing is a great way to develop the required skill set. It develops the perception, attitude, skills, logic, responsibility and aptitude required by a budding lawyer. There are many types of experiential education and different types suit different legal education systems. It is imperative that the correct type is explored and implemented in a particular system. Presently, clinical legal education in India is much talked about and law schools are taking more and more steps to impart knowledge by way of clinical legal education. But still there is a huge gap between what is being taught and what is actually required to be profession ready. In order to explore where the legal education system is lacking, School of Law, Galgotias University has come up with the idea of discussing the pros and cons of clinical legal education so that pros can be promoted and implemented well and cons are filled. This conference aims to get the best international experience into our system of imparting legal education and what can be a better way to learn is from the best of experts and people from academia from all over the world meet at a common platform and share their experiences and expertise in the field of clinical legal education. The overall goal of the conference is to enhance the professional capacity of each attendee and contribute positively in the field of clinical legal education. The conference endeavours to connect clinicians from all over the world so that each can teach and learn at the same time.
