INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

An Initiative by LAW TEACHERS INDIA

CONCEPT NOTE

Legal Education in India is undergoing significant transformation with numerous dynamics continuously shaping the legal field. Consequently, there is a pressing need to provide students with a more practical understanding of specific laws. While classroom teaching ensures that students are equipped with up-to-date knowledge, it is equally important to impart critical thinking skills, as it facilitates their problem identification ability as well as effective and strategic development of possible solutions. Yet even with increased innovation within the classroom there is a need to empower students to handle real-life legal matters, making it crucial to move beyond the usual examination structures. Recognizing the requirement we have launched this project with an aim to create a unique knowledge bank of problems and solutions covering key law subjects taught in Indian law schools. This edition in the series is dedicated to Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). Selected problems and solutions will be compiled in form of a book, the details of which are provided below.
